when I was setting alone in my classroom, my friend sara came and sat with me. She was nervous. She asked me:

- Eme, did you know what happened?
- No, what happened? I answered

She said wonderingly:

- Don't you hear about what happened to selena yesterday?
- No, what's the matter?
- ok, I'll tell you, the story is beginning with her, with selena. at the end of the school day, selena returned to class alone because she forgot her's math book, suddenly, someone closed the light.
- sure she was fancied. I said
- let me complete the story, when she saw behind her, she didn't find anyone beside the lamp button, instead of that, she saw someone was watching her from outside the window.
